THE WEEK IN SOCIETY.

DINNER PARTIES, LUNCHEGNS AND WED-DINGS-PLANS FOR THE SUMMER.

The week socially has been rather dull. With the exception of a few dinner parties, and luncheons. one or two weddings and the last of the Claremont teas, there has been little to break the monotony. Nearly all interest now appears to be centred on summer plans, and as usual at this season, considerable attention is given to Europe and several of which Newport home watering places, among and Narragansett are by no means the least spoken of. At the former place there is scarcely a cottage of any pretensions unrented. Ex-Secretary Whitney and his family will occupy the Isaac Bell villa. Mrs. Ex-Secretary Whitney Brockholst Cutting has taken the Holmes cottage in Bellevue ave., and the Pinard cottages have all been engaged for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan Winthrop and Mrs. John Green are among those who have secured the Pinard villas for the season. Narragansett Fier, which last season was particularly sucessful in a social sense, will doubtless again this be a gay place. Many improvements seen added there since the season not the least welcome of which are cadamized roads and new sewerage throughout the The Casino, the meeting-place of gay spirits, is still without a tenant, Sherry having declined to coept it for another season. An entertainment which will make the senson at the Pier memorable is just now being planned by several men whose reputations no organizers of social diversions are well established.

It is a bachelors' ball, and it is proposed to give it about the middle of the season and to invite the entire Newport cottage colony. While the scheme is as yet Newport cottage colony. by no means perfected, there is a wholesome prospect Even at this early stage of the plan coaching parties, which can without difficulty reach the Pier from Newport by way of Jamestown, are

The week brought one wedding of social interest, that of Miss Jane Brinsmade Potter and Charles Howland Russell. This was celebrated on Wednesin St. George's Church, and, as was expected, was largely attended, both the church and the house being The choral part of the service was exeffective. "The Voice That Breathed o'er Eden," the selection sung by a part-twenty boys and ten men-of the choir, was written by S. P. ### INARTISTIC BEGGING.

From The Buffalo Express.

The bad habit of begging into which not a few small children have failen is growing very rapidly and should be checked in some way. Most of the little folks who make a practice of asking pennies of passers by offer no excuse for their asking and do not more than half expect to get anything for it. But of late the progress made in this evil is something surprising, and now many of the children have become so trained by experience that they can invent any number of stories of necessity, in order to be more certain of a response to their appeals. Some of the stories are unite ingenious, while others as the following will show, are as simple and amusing as would be expected from them: A stylishly-dressed man while strolling along a side street suddenly found his way obstructed by a tiny girl, evidently not five years old, "Say, mister," she piped, "please give me a penny to buy has a sheeting."

LADIES DAY AT THE LAWYERS CLUB.

THE FINE ROOMS IN THE EQUITABLE BUILDING HANDSOMELY DECORATED.

The Lawyers' Club gave its annual May ladies' reception at its rooms in the Equitable Building yesterday afternoon. The rooms were gay with floral decorations, and ladies in charming costumes walked and talked among the plants and flowers, like birds of Paradise in a conservatory. The sombre clothing of the men formed a background—and the men were in the background, anyway-to the bright colors of the spring gowns and bonnets. The reception lasted from 2 o'clock until 5 o'clock, and guests were constantly arriving and departing. Members of the Board of Governors of the club received the guests, and many of the members of the club were present to "do the honors," A luncheon was served in the diningrooms of the club.

A DINNER TO THE SENATE PAGES.

SEVENTEEN DELIGHTED BOYS ENTERTAINED AT SENATOR STANFORD'S HOUSE.

Washington, May 10 (special).-Senator and Mrs. stanford gave a dinner party this evening to the pages of the senate. With punctilions observance of eti-quette and unanimity of action, every one of the boys had, within twenty-four hours of receiong his invita-tion, sent his note of acceptance to the senator and his wife; and these boyish epistics were not the least interesting feature of the pleasant festivity this evening

The beautiful house of Senator and Mrs. Stanford never looked more attractive. Buttercups, daisles and other spring flowers gave a touch of youthful beauty to the drawing rooms, where the host and hostess received their young guests. No boys ever sat down to a prettier table, sparkling with silver and cut glass. At each plate was a pretty box of bon-bons. Then there were "surprises," piled up in dishes at intervals along the centre of the table, and Mrs. stanford gave each of the boys a pair of beautiful gold sleevebuttons.

ODDITIES OF THE EGG WARKET

From The Louisville Commercial.

A leading commission merchant said yesterday to the Town Talker: "The eag business is the most amonging one in the world. During the cold weather in the winter the hens quit laying, but everybody wants to eat eggs. Consequently they go so high that the grocers can't keep peace with their customers. In the spring, just as soon as eggs get plentiful, people quit eating them, and we have to sell them to packers, who pickle them for consumption later on. These eags that are packed are not liked by consumers, and so you see the egg-dealer never has the satisfaction of handling a commodity that is in good demand and good simply at the same time." "THE SENATOR" ENDS HIS TERM.

NEXT SEASON.

A GIFT TO MR. CRANE-WHAT HE SAYS ABOUT

William H. Crane completed his engagement in "The Senator," at the Star Theatre last night, in the presence of the usual large audience. In the afterupon Mr. Crane received a souvenir of his season from Theodore Moss, the proprietor of the theatre. It was a ten-pointed diamond star, with the letter "C" in the centre, and the words "The Senator" around it, all in diamonds, and a large diamond in the middle of the "C." The ornament was made to open I locket, and within was a portrait of Mrs. Crane. the case was engraved: "William H. Crane, from Theodore Moss, Star Theatre, May 10, 1890." The

Mr. Crane was many times called before the curshort speech, of which the following is the substance:

The moment has now come for me to say farewell, but before I make use of that phrase-or rather the more hope-ful "till we meet again"-you will allow me. I feel sure, to say a few words which may make my ungrateful task meant, with your assistance, to pursue in the future, I threw my lot, as you may remember, in with the American dramatist, and especially with the American dramatist who should find his themes in the contemporary life around him. That when we came to New-York with "The Senator" we expected to please you I cannot deny, but that the supposed new era of labor reforms differs Senator" we expected to please you I cannot dony, but little from the Bismarchian era, and that the bill will that the joint efforts of the authors, the company and myself would meet with so unparalleled a success never entered into our wildest dreams. Now, after cordially thanking the management of this theatre after cordially thanking the management of this telescope for their kindly co-operation, let me say a word as to the future. We start to-morrow, as you are aware, on a flying trip to San Francisco, but we return to you in September, after a holiday which will not only afford a chance of recuperation to us, but will, I trust, give time to you so far to forget "The Semior" as to lead you to come to see it again with renewed interest. ### MR. MARISCAL'S RESIGNATION.

"Las Novedades," of New York, which is usually well informed in regard to Spanish American affairs, announces that a change has just taken place in the Foreign Office of the Mexican Republic. Iranetic Mariscal, formerly Mexican Minister at Washington, who afterward so ably managed the Department of Exterior Relations in his own country, has been comof the Mexican Legation in France. The resignation of Mr. Mariscal will be deeply regretted in the United States, where he counts so many friends, and to which he had given so many proofs of his own sympathetic friendship. Fortunately, his successor is a distin-guished statesman, who entertains for the North Amer-ican Republic the same cordial sentiments as does his predecessor. The new Minister of Foreign Affait of Mexico is Mannel Azpiroz, a noted lawyer of Pueble

THE TELEGRAPH COMPANY WINS

AN ENTERTAINMENT BY THE ARION SOCIETY.

The Arian Society gave an entertainment last evening in a fine clubbouse at Park-ave, and Fifty-ninth-st. in which Although admittance was given exclusively to members and their wives or sweethearts, and the weather was by no means all that could be desired, the attendance was large enough to ill the large auditorium confortably. The pro-gramme was an interesting one, especially as it was given by amateurs, and they showed well what musical talent the Frank Van der Stecken was conductor, and the first piece, a cemie operetta in one act, "Der Hoizdieb," was given in highly creditable style by Charles Kalser, Oscar Saenger, H. Hovemann, Frau P. Hovemann and Fraulein L. Zaleser, together with a chorns of minismen. The second part of the programme consisted of violonicelle soles by Adolph Hartdegen, soprano solos by Fraulein Kathrin Hilke, and a piano scio by Fraulein Anna Abresch. The entertainment cuded with a burleque oratorio, "Antonius," in which Charles Kaiser, Oscar Saenger, P. J. Steiner, H. Hovemann and a chorus saus. Nearly all the tonius," in which Charles Kaiser, Os ar Saineer, P. J. Steiner, H. Hovemann and a chorus sang. Nearly all the Arlen's leading members who are not glroad were present, among them being John B. Pannes, William Steinway, Angust J. Reile, C. M. Vom Baur, William Wicke, Sigmond Bergman, Frank Ehret, Edward Hennes, Theodore Kilian and John B. Hasslocker.

REAL AND STAGE PROPOSALS.

From The Chicago Mail.

"They talk about realism being rampant in laterday stage productions," said a man who leaned over the back row of sents the other evening, and by that act proclaimed binself a theatrical rounder, "but I fail to see it. Stage realism, as I understand it, means the counterfeit of reality in private life. Now I want to know if ever a lover off the stage got behind his girl's chair when he wanted to propose to her like that one did in the second act Just now? Some way or other stage-lovers always got around behind their girls and pour out their passionate tale over the fair one's shoulder. And then they appear to be surprised when the girl rejects them, but I'm not. If I was a girl I would not only reject a lover who got behind me to propose and talked over my shoulder, but I would set the dog on him to boot. Yes, I would.

"I tell you there's only just one way to propose to a girl—I've had experience, and know: You've got to get mightly affectionate and snuglesome beforehand, and before you spring the Important question you've got to get her waist in chancery, as it were, while you patty-cake palms with the disengaged hand. Then you must look soulfully into her eves and let it go. Under such circumstances a man can talk in a way that no girl of heast can resist, and before you know it she has said 'yes,' and you've kiesed her and it's all fixed. Compared to this method the stage-lover's way is as sawdust pudding to taploca."

SHALL WE HAVE WHISKEY INSPECTORS!

From The Chicago Mail.

"The most harmless thing we drink is milk, and we drink a great deal more whiskey and beer than milk, and yet the latier liquid is tine only fluid that is inspected by the authorities," said a traveller at the Palmer House last night. "In nearly every State milk is inspected, kerosene is inspected, hay is inspected, frewood is inspected, but firewater never. We forbid druggists to sell even harmless poisons except under certain restrictions, and yet a man has only to take out a saloon license and he can set out on his har the vilest poisons on earth. Some of the stuff sold as whiskey and bear in this town will eat its way through a three-inch rock-eim plank. I don't of a drink, thus when I do I sometimes walk a mile to get a drink that is reasonably pure. I believe it ought to be made a misdemeanor for a saloonist to offer for sale anything that is not absolutely pure."

DIED.

HOGUET-On Friday, May 9, 1890, Henry L. Hoguet, its the 74th year of his ago.

Relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral services at St. Patrick's Cathedrals 5th-ave. and 50th-st., on Monday, May 12, at 1

Interment in Calvary Cemetery. Kindly omit flowers.

NEW-YORK, May 10, 1898. The Board of Managers of the New-York Catholic Pre-tectory, after anxious solicitude and painful suspense caused by the illness of their late beloved president, HENRY L. HOGUET, have assembled in sorrow and with a deep sense of bereavement on receiving the sad news of the death of that eminent citizen and philanthropist.

Connected with this institution as one of its founders, and serving its noble purposes of charity in various capacities of usefulness and real from its first organization, Mr. Hoguet has crowned a quarter of a century of devotion of labor by long and untiring service as its presi-dent. His exertions and labors in behalf of this institution and its wards have been constant, faithful, able and most fruitful; and withal his munificent generosity has made his name eminent among our benefactors. To the service of the poor children confided to our care he has brought an ardent zeal, a right judgment, a vast experi-ence, a generous heart, and an open hand. His genius and his energy have become stamped upon a great work, which he himself has been prominently instrumental in building up from its infancy to its present state of completion and usefulness.

Resolved, Therefore, that the Board of Managers of the New-York Catholic Protectory, while bowing with submission to the decrees of Divine Providence, can but regard the death of Henry L. Hoguet as a public calamity, and to this institution a severe and irreparable loss. A good citizen, an able and upright business man, a generous philanthry pist, and a sincere Christian has fallen in our midst. The noble structures of the Protectory, sheltering over 25,000 children in its time, are monuments of his zeal and labors: many of them have been vastly enlarged and improved under his administration, and several new and imposing buildings erected.

The moral good he has accomplished has been great. Resolved, That the afflicted family of the deceased have our warmest sympathy and condolence, that the Board of Managers will attend the funeral in a body, and the Secretary shall cause two copies of these resolutions to be appropriately engrossed, signed by the officers, and framed, and that one copy thereof shall be placed in the city office of the Protectory and the other shall be presented to the family of the lamented deceased.

JAMES R. FLOYD, Vice-President. RICHARD H. CLARKE, Secretary. STEPHEN PHILBIN, Rev. Bro. LEONTINE, Committee.

NEW-YORK, May 10, 1890. The Members of the Irish Emigrant Society are requested to attend the funeral of their late associate. Mr HENRY L. HOGUET, on Monday, the 12th inst., at 10
